Ralph Duren

Ralph Duren, a native of Jefferson County, grew up on a small farm near the towns of Festus and Crystal City. After attending Jefferson Junior College in Hillsboro, he received his B.S. degree in Animal Husbandry from the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1976.

Mr. Duren worked as an animal research technician at MU from 1974 to 1979, when he joined the Missouri Department of Conservation as a Wildlife Damage Control Agent. He then received a promotion to Outdoor Skills Specialist and moved to work in Jefferson City at the MDC headquarters. In 1995, Mr. Duren was promoted to his present position, Public Relations Specialist in the MDC Outreach & Education Division.

Mr. Duren has co-authored two education manuals and has written several articles in the Missouri Conservationist magazine. He is currently on the Realtree Outdoors Advisory staff. Mr. Duren has appeared on National Public Radio, CBS Tom Snyder Late Night, CBS This Morning, The Nashville Network, Cable News Network, the Tonight Show with Jay Leno and numerous other programs.

He has received many turkey-calling and owl-hooting trophies in recognition of his unusual vocal skills. Mr. Duren currently resides in Jefferson City, Missouri, with his wife, Cheryl, and their five children.
